Dear Adrian:

We have now received the official filing receipt issued in connection with this application and a copy of the same is attached for your records. The original was retained in our file.

IMPORTANT: We draw your attention to the duty of candor and good faith toward the United States Patent and Trademark Office which rests on the inventor, on each attorney or agent who prepared or prosecutes this patent application and on every other individual who is substantively involved in the preparation or prosecution of this application and who is associated with the inventor, with the assignee or with anyone to whom there is an obligation to assign this application. All such individuals have a duty to disclose to the United States Patent Office information they are aware of which is material to the examination of this application. Such information is material where there is a substantial likelihood that a reasonable Examiner would consider it important in deciding whether to allow this application to issue as a patent.

The "Information" concerned includes, but is not limited to, all published applications and patents, including Applicant's and assignee's own U.S. or foreign application(s) and patent(s), as well as any other pertinent prior art known, or which becomes known, to the inventor or his/her representative(s). When an English language equivalent of a foreign language document(s) is known, it should be identified and, when possible, a copy of the same supplied. Failure to comply with this requirement may result in a patent issued on this application being held invalid even if the known prior art which is not supplied is material to only one claim of that patent. Please be sure to inform us fully as to such "Information" and provide us with all necessary copies thereof.

If you have any questions concerning any of the above or require further clarification concerning the rule change, please contact our office. We will keep you advised of further developments as they arise in this case.

Yours sincerely,
DAVIS AND BUJOLD, P.L.L.C.
